If you also want to make tons of money from internet, then I will recommend you use the Clickbank Market place. Click Bank is the second largest monetization platform which gives you up to 70% commission on each product you sell from your link.

What Is Click Bank & How It Works

Click Bank is an affiliate marketing platform where you promote someone's products on your Blog or On your YouTube Channel. When someone buy any product from your given URL then click Bank Pays you the 75% commission of that product. And I think this is the very huge amount which click bank pays.

1. Find A Best Product to Promote: -

First click here to sign up in click bank affiliate program and fill up all your details including bank account information in which click bank sends you your commission. After signing up compellation go to the marketplace.

Now in the left-hand side you can see category tab. Choose any category which product you want to promote. It is recommended to choose the product in the range of 20$ to 50$. This Is the average product and you must have to sell almost 6 – 8 products to make 100$. It depends on the products commission which you are selling. Normal commission on click bank product is from 50% to 75%. But you also note the more expensive products you promote the less commission you earn. Because everyone wants to buy the cheaper products. So, try to promote only averaged products as I

Add your affiliate link in the signature box which you will see in the profile edit sections.

Join almost 10 forums which is related to your products and post almost 100 comments in each forum but be careful don't spam on forums otherwise you will be ban from forum. If you find a thread related to your product comment on it. You will surely get the good response in few days.

- Social Media Sharing: -

Make one Facebook page share your blog posts there. Also join groups related to your product. Share your products affiliate link there. You will probably get a lot of visitors as well as buyers from Facebook groups.

- Article Submission or Blog Commenting:

Article Submission Marketing

Article submission or blog commenting is easy and helpful. You don't need any website or blog for this. You just need to find the blogs and blog directories where you can submit article or comment in their articles as well.

There are a lot of blogs out there where you can submit your article and paste your product link in that article. Write your article unique from others otherwise you will get duplicate content error. Also make your content SEO friendly so that it will show in the first page. So that everyone could see your product and if anybody like it he/she will surely buy it.

Blog commenting is also good option for promoting. Find your product related articles and comment there but remember don't comment like they think it's spam. Do comment on the blog regarding article. First you need to read that article and do comment like this: - very good information I have same related post in my blog (your blog post url here).

Now you will get a backlink for your blog as well as buyer for your product.

Will post the directories later.

- YouTube or any other video uploading platform: -

First you must create channel in YouTube or any other video uploading platform. Then you must go to your product website and download their review video, or you can download it from YouTube (to avoid from copyright issue then you have to edit that video, trim some seconds clip from start as well as end). After that upload it on YouTube with proper SEO so that it will show to more peoples. Add your affiliate url in the description box

BEST VIDEO UPLOADING PLATFORMS: -

- YouTube
- Vimeo
- Tune.pk
